To the Students of Torrance High,

'Congratulations'

The fine public spirit you have shown in sponsoring "Courtesy Week" merits the praise of every Torrance institution.

We are confident that your efforts to instill a greater loyalty toward local business firms will be beneficial to everyone interested in the development of Torrance.

"That's the Spirit That Spells PROGRESS!"

Betty Myerscough, senior A, succeeds Welbourn Jeter as editor of the school newspaper, the Green and Gold, as a result of elections held in the journalism class, February 6. Betty was a member of the Green and Gold staff last year and is now club editor of the year-book.

Helen Hobbs was elected assistant editor and Robert Stock, business manager. Other members of the staff were appointed. James Gannon will act as sports editor, Calista Washburn as circulation manager, and Evelyn Klein as third page editor.

The other 18 members of the journalism class who are taking this subject for the first time, are trying out for positions as reporters. Ten of them are writers for the Green and Gold and eight are supplying news for the local papers.

The two senior A classes, under the sponsorship of Miss Rutha Williams and Mr. Hunt, have united and now meet together in the library during roll call period. For the first time one group of officers was elected from the two classes.

Claude Omohundro was chosen president; Harry Paul, vice president; Helen Hobbs, secretary; Alice Coward, treasurer, and Mary Likens, historian.

The senior B's have still two separate roll call groups with two sets of class officers. Antonia Tarico was elected president of Miss Larson's group; Hall McCaw, vice president; Jessie Short, secretary; and Richard Engle, treasurer. Officers from Mr. Willibrand's group are Edward Groover, president; Robert Melz, vice president; Eugene Hurt, secretary-treasurer; Julia Eley, historian.

Fourteen students in Miss Shea's typing classes are to receive awards from the board of education. In addition to speed and accuracy attainment, the students had to know how to make neat carbon copies, address an envelope correctly, fold a letter properly, arrange business letters artistically, use tabular stops, change a typewriter ribbon and make a neat correction.

Only three errors are allowed on a ten-minute test. Helen Johnson will receive a 60-word and Geneva Straub a 50-word award. The students listed in the order of achievement are as follows:

Helen Johnson with a speed of 69 words a minute and three errors; Geneva Straub, 56 words and two errors; Dorothy Spring-

High School Sends Fruit Judging Team To San Bernardino

Torrance high school will be represented as usual at the National Orange Show, which opened at San Bernardino this week, by a team of citrus fruit judges who will compete on Saturday with a number of other teams from various high schools in Southern California.

Torrance carried away the honors last year, winning the silver trophy awarded to the team having the highest score.

The school will be represented this year by Francis Mowry, Dale Howe, Kenneth Fees and Melvin Howard. Three members make up the team with one substitute.

man, 53 words, two errors; Moto Tawa, 45 words, two errors; Maxine Henderson, 45 words, three errors; Irma Schmidt, 44 words, one error; Nondus Stump, 44 words, two errors;

Kaxuye Nakahara, 42 words, one error; Kaoru Takaki, 42 words, one error; Mildred Hanson, 42 words, three errors; Lorena Robertson, 42 words, three errors; Lois Maddy, 41 words, two errors; Christina Myerscough, 40 words, one error; twelfth, Marjorie Irvine, 40 words, three errors.

Keeping Up With Torrance High

By MYRON NIGHTINGALE

George Figueredo was elected president of the Associated Student Body of Torrance High School at an election held February 9. President George was elected by a large majority.

George has been an active member of the student body for four years. He has served on important student committees, and has been a member of the varsity football team for four consecutive years. This is George's last year at Torrance high school.

James McLean, who is also a very prominent member of the student body, was elected vice president. James has also been a member of the football team for four years. He just recently returned from the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital where he was operated on for appendicitis.

Other students elected to student body offices are as follows: Secretary, Alice Burger; treasurer, Andree Roque; commissioner of athletics, Bob Atchison; commissioner of oral arts, Edith Riley; president of Boys' Self-Government, Bob Carson; president of the Girls' Self-Government, Jean Wheaton; advertising manager, Jim Lang.

Fifty-eight athletes of Torrance high school, were awarded their letters at an assembly held February 7. Members of the varsity football team, and those of the A, B, C and D basketball teams, received letters.

Bob Atchison, Jim McLean, George Figueredo, Louie Briganti and Herman Hamman, all four-year lettermen, received their last letters as members of Torrance high athletic teams.

Thomas McNeil, president of the class of W '23, in behalf of the class, presented the student body with a $40 check at the lettermen's assembly, February 7. The class had planned to give a radio, but decided the money would be more acceptable.

Caps and gowns or suits and dresses, which shall we have? This is the question that is facing the senior A class. The boys want caps and gowns, claiming they will be cheaper. The girls, on the other hand, want their smart new dresses. They say the money put out for caps and gowns is a waste. If the question comes to a vote the boys will probably win as they are in the majority.

Mr. Samuels of Los Angeles was the speaker at a recent meeting

Klansmen To Meet Tonight At Hall On Border Avenue

Two hundred Klansmen attended the meeting held in the old American Legion hall on Border avenue Thursday evening, February 9, when a very impressive program was carried out. A large number of new applications for membership were given consideration.

Tonight the Klansmen will meet at the same place, at 8 o'clock, when a talk will be given on the question, "Has any other fraternal order chosen Christ as its criterion of character?" and "Has the Klan been handicapped by having adopted Christ as its criterion of character?"

Next Thursday the question to be discussed will be, "Would the elimination of Christ, the Klansman's criterion of character, from Klanscraft result in an increase of membership?"

The meetings are open to members and ex-members. Supper is served free at the conclusion of the meetings.

Villagers To Display Art Work Sunday

A display and sale of art work by members of New Haven Village will be held all day, Sunday, February 19, at the colony assembly hall, 229th street and South Figueroa avenue. Among the articles to be on exhibit are: Landscapes, tapestries, portraits, sketches and interior decorating. The public is invited to view the exhibit, and make such purchases as they desire.

Elementary P. T. A. In Drive For Shoes

A drive for discarded shoes for children will be launched by the Torrance elementary P. T. A. tomorrow. Shoes that have been outgrown, or which with not too much repair, will make a serviceable pair for some needy child are wanted.

The drive will be continued for one week. Shoes may be left at the Chamber of Commerce or Mrs. N. A. Leake may be notified and arrangements will be made to call for the donations.

Newberry Store Changes Manager

C. E. Noice, who has been manager of the Torrance store of the J. J. Newberry Company for a number of years, has been transferred to El Centro, where he will have charge of the company's store. The Torrance store has made a very satisfactory showing under Mr. Noice's management and his transfer to El Centro, where the company has a larger store, is in the nature of a promotion in recognition of his successful work here.

Paul Sherwin, who has been with the J. J. Newberry organization for a number of years, succeeds Mr. Noice as manager of the Torrance store.

County Workmen To Be Insured

Los Angeles county will provide for the workmen's compensation insurance on every one of the men employed through Reconstruction Finance Corporation funds in Torrance and other incorporated municipalities, by an order adopted by the board of supervisors.

This means, it is explained, that the county agrees to assume liability for injuries that may be sustained by persons engaged in unemployment relief work.
